NOTIFICATION.

No. 2721J.D.—The 24th September 1904.—In supersession of all existing rules on the subject, the following rules, which have been framed by the Chief Presidency Magistrate under section 21 (I) of the Criminal Procedure Code, 1898 (Act V of 1898), for the Courts of the Presidency Magistrates, Calcutta, and sanctioned by the Lieutenant-Governor, are published for general information:—

Calcutta.

PRESIDENCY MAGISTRATES' COURTS.

Rules framed under section 21, Criminal Procedure Code.

1. The Chief Presidency Magistrate will ordinarily sit from 10 A.M. till 4-30 P.M., the other salaried Presidency Magistrates from 10-30 A.M. till 5 P.M., and the Presidency Magistrates other than the Chief Presidency Magistrate or salaried Presidency Magistrates from midday till 5 P.M., on all days that are not gazetted holidays. On the last Saturday of each month one salaried Presidency Magistrate and a Bench of Presidency Magistrates only will sit. Special arrangements will be made for sittings during the Puja and Christmas holidays.

2. The first salaried Presidency Magistrate will ordinarily take cognizance direct of all petty police cases (night charges) and of all cases under the Merchant Shipping Act. The second salaried Presidency Magistrate will ordinarily take cognizance direct of all cases sent up by the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. With these exceptions, Presidency Magistrates will try only such cases as may be referred to them by the Chief Presidency Magistrate, or by his orders.

3. In the Chief Presidency Magistrate's Court business will be conducted as far as possible in the following order:—

I.—Applications for process will be received.
II.—Unheard cases, both new and adjourned, that have been fixed for the day will be distributed for trial.
III.—Postponed applications will be taken up.
IV.—Part-heard cases in the file, and new cases kept by the Chief Presidency Magistrate in his own file will be dealt with.

4. All applications for process, including applications to summon a person to give evidence or to produce any document or other thing, should ordinarily be made in writing on foolscap properly stamped when necessary. Applications for process should contain the names and addresses of the parties, and the names of witnesses, and a brief description of the subject-matter of the complaint. Applications to summon persons to give evidence or to produce any document or other thing should show, if possible, the father's name, as well as the address of each witness, unless he be a European British subject.

5. Presidency Magistrates other than the Chief Presidency Magistrate or salaried Presidency Magistrates will sit in accordance with the roster drawn up by the Chief Presidency Magistrate. Special Benches may, however, be convened by him for any day or hour.

6. Benches will ordinarily consist of three Presidency Magistrates other than the Chief Presidency Magistrate or salaried Presidency Magistrates, one of whom will be appointed Chairman by the Chief Presidency Magistrate. Should one or more of the members be absent, the Chief Presidency Magistrate may, in his discretion, either arrange for substitutes, or, if two members still remain, direct the work to proceed without the absent member.

7. The Chairman shall ordinarily record the evidence and judgment (in cases where a record of evidence and judgment is necessary) with his own hand, but such duty may with his consent be performed by any of his colleagues, or the evidence may be taken down by the Clerk of the Court at the dictation of the Chairman.

8. Every member of a Bench shall have a voice in the determination of all points arising in cases before them and in the finding and sentence, and the decision of the majority shall prevail. In a Bench composed of two members the opinion of the Chairman shall prevail on all points except the finding; in the event of a disagreement as to the finding the case shall be referred back to the Chief Presidency Magistrate.

9. To obviate as far as possible adjourned sittings of Presidency Magistrates other than the Chief Presidency Magistrate or salaried Presidency Magistrates, only such cases as can probably be disposed of in one hearing will ordinarily be transferred to them. Any unheard cases that cannot be taken up on the day of transfer for want of time or other reason shall be sent back to the Chief Presidency Magistrate as early as possible.

10. Where it is necessary to adjourn a part-heard case the adjournments shall be as far as possible de die in diem.

11. It is expected of Presidency Magistrates other than the Chief Presidency Magistrate or salaried Presidency Magistrates, whether empowered to sit singly or not, that when requested by the Chief Presidency Magistrate or by an officer of police not below the rank of Superintendent, they will go without delay to any place within a reasonable distance from their residences, or, if they be in Court, within a reasonable distance from the Court, in order to record the statements of persons reported to be in danger of death and whose evidence is regarded by the officer making the requisition as essential to the conviction of a prisoner charged with the commission of a criminal offence.
